

FOREWORD

The Department of Basic Education has pleasure in releasing a subject exemplar booklet for School Based Assessment (SBA) to assist and guide teachers with the setting and development of standardised SBA tasks and assessment tools. The SBA booklets have been written by teams of subject specialists to assist teachers to adapt teaching and learning methods to improve learner performance and the quality and management of SBA.

The primary purpose of this SBA exemplar booklet is to improve the quality of teaching and assessment (both formal and informal) as well as the learner's process of learning and understanding of the subject content. Assessment of and for learning is an ongoing process that develops from the interaction of teaching, learning and assessment. To improve learner performance, assessment needs to support and drive focused, effective teaching.

School Based Assessment forms an integral part of teaching and learning, its value as a yardstick of effective quality learning and teaching is firmly recognised. Through assessment, the needs of the learner are not only diagnosed for remediation, but it also assists to improve the quality of teaching and learning. The information provided through quality assessment is therefore valuable for teacher planning as part of improving learning outcomes.

Assessment tasks should be designed with care to cover the prescribed content and skills of the subject as well as include the correct range of cognitive demand and levels of difficulty. For fair assessment practice, the teacher must ensure that the learner understands the content and has been exposed to extensive informal assessment opportunities before doing a formal assessment activity.

The exemplar tasks contained in this booklet, developed to the best standard in the subject, is aimed to illustrate best practices in terms of setting formal and informal assessment. Teachers are encouraged to use the exemplar tasks as models to set their own formal and informal assessment activities.

PREAMBLE

1. INTRODUCTION

Assessment is a continuous planned process of identifying, gathering and interpreting information about the performance of learners, using various forms of assessment. It involves four steps: generating and collecting evidence of achievement; evaluating this evidence; recording the findings and using this information to understand and thereby assist the learner's development in order to improve the process of learning and teaching. School-based assessment (SBA) is conducted by the teacher at the school level and is summative, i.e. it assesses performance against curriculum standards.

SBA may take place at different points of the learning process, as described through section 4 of the Curriculum and Assessment Policy statements (CAPS) and the results are recorded and count towards a learner's final promotion or certification. Realising that there are gaps in the way tasks are set and quality assured, the booklet is provided to give guidance in alleviating the situation, as per the report of the UMALUSI on quality assurance of NSC (December 2013).

The exemplar SBA tasks provided in this booklet are in line with the Programme of Assessment as contained in chapter 4 of the EMS Curriculum and Assessment Policy Statement (CAPS). It should be noted that these exemplar SBA tasks can be adapted by teachers to suite their classroom conditions.

2. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- Provide quality assured assessment tasks to capacitate teachers in setting their own assessment tasks.
- Provide guidance to teachers when setting their own assessment tasks.
- Deepen understanding of cognitive demand of tasks by teachers and SMT when setting assessment and quality assuring the assessment tasks at school level.
- To ensure that there are systems to quality assure the assessment tasks in all the various levels of the education system

3. ASSESSMENT TASKS

The assessment tasks provided in this booklet include other forms of assessments like projects, case studies, assignments, data responses, but not the tests and examinations for grades 7-9.

4. LEVELS OF TASK MODERATION

4.1. SCHOOL LEVEL

- The school level moderation is conducted by the HOD/SMT member prior to administering of the task to determine whether the task is of the required standard.
- The HOD/SMT member moderates the task after it has been administered on a sample basis to verify whether marking was done in accordance with the marking guidelines/memorandum/rubric.

4.2. DISTRICT LEVEL

The subject advisor moderates the task on a sample basis:

- Prior to administering by the school, to ensure that the task being written is of an acceptable standard.
- After it has been administered to check whether marking has been done according to the marking guideline/memo/rubric.

4.3. PROVINCIAL LEVEL

The subject head moderates the task prior and after administering by schools on a sample basis to ascertain whether the task complies with the curriculum standards and cognitive demands of the subject and that marking guidelines are being applied fairly to all learners.

VARIOUS FORMS OF ASSESSMENT IN EMS

1. Tests

Tests could be used for summative or formative purposes. They usually consist of a range of questions. Learners are required to respond to questions within a specified time. Tests are usually used to assess the recall of information and cognitive skills such as problem solving or analysis etc. For a paper and pen test objectives tests and assays could be used.
The objective tests could include multiple choice, matching, true or false, short answer completion or paragraph completion etc.

Alternative response questions

- True/False; Yes/ No questions
- Possible uses:
- Recall of information
- Ability to discriminate

Multiple-choice questions
Multiple-choice questions consist of an incomplete statement or question, followed by plausible alternative responses from which the learner has to select the correct one. Outcomes involving higher order analytical skills are probably more validly assessed by means of free-response assessment instruments such as extended response questions, but multiple choice questions can be useful if carefully constructed.
Possible uses:

- Recall of information
- Check understanding; analysis

Assertion/reason questions (statement)

These questions consist of an assertion and supporting explanation. The learner has to decide whether the assertion and explanation are true, and if true, whether the explanation is a valid reason for the assertion. One possible use is to assess learners' ability to weigh up options and to discriminate (distinguish)

2. Assignments

Assignments are problem-solving exercises with clear guideline/ instructions and a specified length. More structured and less open-ended than projects, but they do not necessarily involve strict adherence to a prescribed procedure and they are not concerned exclusively with manual skills
Possible uses:

- Problem-solving around a particular topic

3. Case Studies

A case study is a description of an event concerning a real-life or simulated situation, usually in the form of a paragraph or text, a video (description of the picture for the blind/ captions for the deaf), a picture or a role-play exercise. This is followed by a series of instructions to elicit responses from learners. Individuals or small groups may undertake case studies.
Possible uses:

- Analysis of situations
- Drawing conclusions
- Reports on possible course of action

4. Practical exercises/ demonstrations

This is an activity that allows learners to demonstrate manual and/or behavioural skills. The assessment may be based on the end-result of the activity (the product), or the carrying-out of the activity (the process), or a combination of both.
Possible uses:

- Demonstration skills

5. Projects

A project is any exercise or investigation in which the time constraints are more relaxed.
Projects are:
Practical
Comprehensive and open-ended
Tackled without close supervision, but with assessor guidance and support
Projects can involve individuals or a group of learners. The assessor directs the choice of the project, usually by providing the learner with a topic or brief for the investigation.
Possible uses:

- Comprehensive range of skills can be assessed
- Integration of activities

6. Role-plays

Learners are presented with a situation, often a problem or an incident, to which they have to respond by assuming a particular role. The enactment may be unrehearsed, or the learner (s) may be briefed in the particular role to be played. Such assessments are openended and are person-centred
Possible uses:

- Assessment of a wide range of behavioural and inter-personal skills

7. Simulations

Simulations mirror actual activities or conditions. They are suitable for assessments where demonstrations and observation will provide reliable and valid results, but where, for a number of reasons, it is difficult or not practicable to assess under actual conditions. Possible uses:
Assessments of actions under 'safe' conditions, e.g. operating machines which could be dangerous or where the breakdown of such a machine will cause a halt in production or endanger lives

8. Observations

This type of assessment that is commonly used by teachers without consciously thinking about doing it. Teachers constantly observe learners informally to assess their understanding and progress. Teachers watch learners as they respond to questions or as they study. The teacher listens to them as they speak and discuss with others.
Observation is also used extensively in performance based assessment and other formal techniques.
9. Other forms of Assessment that can be used:

- Data Response
- Graph analysis
- Structured questions
- Examinations
- Simulations
- Presentations (oral and written)
- Demonstrations
- Interviews
- Questionnaires
- Posters
- Collage
- Charts
- Surveys
- Investigations
- Debate
- Reports
- Panel discussion
- Music - rap
- Drawings
- Mind mapping
- Worksheets
- Exhibitions

The hair salon generates an income of approximately R12 000 a month. Tendani has opened a savings account for the business of R6 000 and earns $5 \%$ interest on the savings account every month.

Tendani is not happy with the work ethics of his worker. He takes long lunch hours and customers have to wait for him. Dear Grade 7 Parents / Guardians

ENTREPRENEURS' FAIR_

Date: $\qquad$
The time has come! This is what you have been eagerly waiting for. The Grade 7 learners will hold an Entrepreneurs' Fair on (Date)
The learners are to hold a market where their manufactured goods_will be sold to the rest of the school. They aim to utilize skills taught in many of the subjects and to put these into practice, so as to assess the feasibility of this as a possible future income. This specifically ties in with the Entrepreneurship component of EMS.

We would like this project to be handled as realistically as possible. We would like to encourage learners to manufacture their own goods, e.g. cards, jewellery, fudge, etc., as far as possible. Although bought goods (such as sweets), will not be disallowed, extra marks will be awarded for creativity and initiative shown. Each learner will only be allowed to sell 40 items.

Learners may work with partners, but in groups no larger than two learners. Parents will not be allowed to assist learners on the day of the fair besides setting up. The fair will be held in the sports field from 08:00-11:00. However, each learner will be responsible for all the individual assignments leading up to the fair. Learners will be given guidance at school about running a basic business.

The project will work along the following lines: Your child must have an idea of what he/she would like to do by [date]. Please assist them with their choices. Using their business idea, surveys, marketing and business plans etc., will be drawn up. Learners need to have a name for their business.

Your child may also draw up a 'loan agreement' with you or approach you to be their banker and legal representative. Methods of repayments and interest rates of loans will be left up to you. Learners need to be aware of all the costs involved in setting up a business, as far as possible. They will be responsible for marketing and advertising their ideas before the event.

Follow-up activities such as success rates, etc. will take place after the fair.

ITEMS NOT ALLOWED:

Syringes, water games, soccer scoring, raffles, dangerous activities, quad bikes or any form of bubble gum or livestock. Please treat the whole matter as seriously as possible and please assist your child where necessary. These aspiring young business people may possibly test your patience during the next few weeks, but please bear with them as they attempt to make a success of this venture. Further details and dates will follow.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP: SURVEY

Designing a Questionnaire

- Which shops do they buy from?
- What items do they buy from the shops?
- What are the ages of people buying at those particular shops?
- Why do people buy certain items and not buy other items at all?

A questionnaire can assist you in collecting a considerable amount of information that can be of help, especially when you want to start your own small business or company.

A few important aspects that you must remember when you develop your own questionnaire are:

1. Keep the information that you collect confidential at all times, even if you think your questions were not personal at all.
2. Formulate your questions correctly.
3. Always try and hand out and collect as many questionnaires as possible because the more people you get to fill in the questionnaire, the better and more reliable the results will be. This will always help you to act according to the needs and wants of your customers (if you are an entrepreneur) and in this way you can adhere to their needs and wants or at least keep the majority satisfied with your product(s).

Example of a questionnaire

Name: $\qquad$ Grade:

1. How many times a week do you go to the tuck shop? $\qquad$
2. How much money do you spend on average with every visit to the tuck shop?
3. Choose only one item that you buy the most of at the tuck shop from the list below and circle the item. Aero; Flake; Super C; Lollipops; Toffees; Marshmallows; Jelly Beans or Bar One.
a) The Business Plan
b) When you plan to start a business, you need to answer certain questions, such as:

- How much will it cost me to start the business and how will I finance it?
- What will the cost prices and the selling prices of my products and services be?
- How much will my operating expenses be?
- What do my sales have to be for me to break even, and how much do I have to sell to make a reasonable profit?

THE BEST WAY TO ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS WILL BE TO COMPILE A BUSINESS PLAN.

Here's how to prepare a business plan, step by step:

Step 1: Explaining your ideas:

Write a paragraph explaining your business idea and how you plan to make and/or sell this product or service. State why you think your idea will work.

Step 2: Who is your target market?

THINK

Explain who you think your customers will be. What ages are they? Do they have enough money to buy your product or service?

Step 3: Where do you plan to run your business?
Describe where your business will be, and why.
THINK

Describe how you are going to promote your business idea. What kinds of advertising will you use and where will you place your advertisements? Can you create interesting, attractive displays of your product to make people notice it? If your business has competitors, in what ways will your product or service be better than or different to theirs?

Step 5: What type of ownership and management will you have?
If you have decided to form a partnership with other people, your business plan should include a partnership agreement. If you plan to be a sole trader, explain how you will manage your finances, advertise your business, and so on.

Step 6: What resources are needed to produce this product or service?

List the raw materials, equipment, skills and people your business will need.

Step 7: Where will you get the raw materials you need?

Do research to compare prices and quality from different suppliers.

Step 8: What will your costs and selling price be?

Here you need to show careful calculations. List all the costs or expenses involved in producing your product or service, and show your unit cost. Then state what selling price you have decided on for your product or service. Explain how you worked out your selling price.

Step 9: How much profit can your business make?

Your business plan must be as realistic as possible or it is not useful - remember this when you calculate the profit you think the business will make. To calculate profit, you deduct total expenditures from total income. However, at the planning stage, it's not easy to know what your total income will be. You will therefore have to do an estimate.
If your business will make a loss, not a profit, you will need to think of another business idea, or work out ways of reducing your expenditure.

Step 10: What are your goals?

These must be realistic. What do you want to achieve in your business?

Step 11: SWOT analysis:

SWOT stands for strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats.
Strengths are the advantages the business has within it, e.g. you may be a very organized person who has completed an entrepreneurship course.

Weaknesses are the disadvantages the business has within it, e.g. you may not be good at keeping financial records or at dealing calmly with busy, stressful situations.

Opportunities are advantages that exist in the environment in which you run your business. e.g. little competition.

Threats are disadvantages that exist in the environment in which you run your business. e.g. weather.

Step 12: Conclusion:

End off your business plan with a positive conclusion that will definitely make the reader think that your business idea can do well.

Forms of ownership, CRJ, CPJ, account equation

Mr Jacobs has three sons and one daughter. He is a sole trader with three taxis. His sons drive the taxis and his daughter would like to learn to do the financial records of the business. Mr Jacobs would like to change his form of ownership so that all his children can have a share of the ownership of the business. However, he does not want to put their personal assets at risk or give up ownership to people he does not know. Jabu, the eldest son, would like to form a close corporation as he has heard that it is the cheapest and the best option. Themba, the youngest, says that a public company will be better as they will be able to buy a huge fleet of taxis and make massive profits. Mr Jacobs's wife went into hospital for an emergency operation and Swazi, their daughter, has tried to complete the cash journals but she has made a number of errors. (2)
