SECTION CQUESTION 6

Read the following article carefully and answer the questions.

POLICE, CPF AND EPR SWOOP ON CRIMINAL ACTIVITY

Together, we fight to make Randfontein safer – CPF after they have joined hands with the police, EPR and others in a Friday night crackdown on crime in Randfontein.

The police, in conjunction with the community policing (sic) forum (CPF) and local security companies such as EPR Security, as well as emergency medical services drove a massive crime awareness campaign in various sectors of Randfontein on Friday, 20 July.

According to Henry Boyce, the CPF operations coordinator, the areas focused on during the operation were sectors 3, 4 and 5 and the CBD. Colonel Rand Makgatho started the campaign with a briefing on the purpose of the operation. He wanted the community to be aware of housebreaking, gate motor theft, vehicle theft and stock theft in these areas. Pamphlets containing the crime stop number were also handed out. 'We are proud to work hand in hand with our community and other stakeholders in ensuring the safety of the Randfontein community. These operations will be conducted more frequently,' Makgatho said. All role-players involved want the Randfontein community to be vigilant and aware of basic crime prevention measures, including how to avoid becoming a victim of crime. According to Boyce, dozens of CPF, EPR Security, police and Netcare vehicles were part of the campaign. The police, in conjunction with the community policing forum and local security companies, including EPR Security and emergency medical services, conducted a successful crime awareness campaign. 'I want to give a special words of thanks to the police's Sergeants Levy Molepo, Wilson Molokomme, and Edward Molefe, and to Johan Booysen from EPR Security,' Boyce said. A total of 83 persons, 11 vehicles and six premises were searched during the operation.

Captain Appel Ernst, Randfontein police spokesperson, said 14 arrests were made – some of them because of the operation. 'Although not all of these arrests originated from this group operation, it was evident that no serious crimes were reported in the areas in which the group was conducting its patrols. Arrests were made for dealing in liquor without a licence, possession of drugs and marijuana, driving under the influence of liquor and possession of suspected stolen property,' Ernst added.

Boyce concluded by saying: 'Together, we fight to make Randfontein safer.'

[15]QUESTION 7

- 7.1 You are visiting the police station in your neighbourhood to collect data for your research assignment at the College. Your observations are made in the Community Service Centre (CSC) over a 12-hour shift. During this 12-hour shift you notice that the suspected offenders detained in the police cells are not visited physically on an hourly basis. However, the Captain in charge of the CSC makes an hourly entry in the Occurrence Book which states that he has visited the cells and that all detainees are well.
- 7.1.1 Is this activity (that the cells are not visited on an hourly basis while an entry to that effect is made in the Occurrence Book) classified as a compliant or non-compliant activity?  (1)
- 7.1.2 What is the difference between compliant and non-compliant activities? (3)
- 7.1.3 Give TWO more examples of the type of activity that was identified in QUESTION 7.1.1. (2)
- 7.2 Peter was arrested for driving under the influence of an intoxicating substance. He was detained at the Sandton police station. Section 35 (1)(f) of the Constitution, 1996, states that every person who has been arrested for allegedly committing an offence has the right to be released from detention in the interest of justice, subject to reasonable conditions.
- 7.2.1 On what basis can bail be granted to Peter?
- 7.2.2 Who else can grant bail?  (2 × 2) (4)

7.3 You are the advisor for an international company located in Midrand. The owner of the business has received a letter from the Foreign Branch of the State Security Agency (the Branch was formerly known as the South African Secret Service) stating that the State Security Agency needs information on the company's business dealings with country X, as it is classified as conducting matters of foreign intelligence. The owner has sent you an e-mail, asking the following questions:

7.3.1 What is foreign intelligence?  (2)

7.3.2 What are the sources that can grant legal authority for conducting matters of foreign intelligence? (3)
