SECTION 2:

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

(a) General comment on the performance of learners in the specific question.

Was the question well answered or poorly answered?

- The performance of candidates is average. The marks ranges from 4 – 30 in the randomly selected 100 sample scripts.
- The averages per sub-questions are 1.1 62%; 1.2 63% and 1.3 64%. Questions 1.1.1, 1.1.4, 1.2.1, 1.2.2, and 1.3.1 were mostly answered incorrectly in the 100 sample scripts.
- It is clear that candidates struggle with some of the short questions where they have to apply their knowledge and not only recall knowledge.

(b) Why the question was poorly answered? Also provide specific examples, indicate common errors committed by learners in this question, and any misconceptions.

- Candidates struggled with 1.1.1 – they confused COIDA (B) with the BCEA (A)
- 1.1.4 They could not identify placement as the Human Resource function.
- 1.2.1 Most candidates responded with the incorrect distractor “Fair and honest dealings”. Only 28 of the sample of 100 learners obtained marks for this question. The median for this question is 0%.
- 1.2.2 Candidates could not identify the strategy instead of backward vertical they had forward vertical as response.
- 1.3.1 Most candidates struggled to answer this question. Only 23 of the sample of 100 obtained marks for this question.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- Section A must be part of formal and informal assessment during teaching and learning.
- Teachers must link key words related to the different Acts to enable learners to recognise the Acts in short questions.
- Teachers should ensure that candidates know Business Studies terminology
- Use Business Studies Examination Guidelines 2021 to teach quality concepts and compile additional resource with scenarios and examples.
- Planned revision within the scope of CAPS with adequate resources is highly recommended.
- Teachers must use recent marking guidelines as an additional resource.

(d) Describe any other specific observations relating to responses of learners and comments that are useful to teachers, subject advisors, teacher development etc.

- There is evident that the poor performance of some candidates in Section A can be observed by the following:
- Instructions were not followed, e.g., Numbering of question must be the same as used in the question paper.
- Only use the words as it appears in the list in question 1.2.
- Do not abbreviate or change the words. Only give ONE response to each question in Section A

SECTION B

QUESTION 2 BUSINESS ENVIRONMENTS

(a) General comment on the performance of learners in the specific question.

Was the question well answered or poorly answered?

- The performance of the candidates ranges from poor to good, but the majority of the learners performed poorly in Question 2.
- Based on 100 scripts the average for question 2 is 6%. The median mark is 27.5% and the marks range between 2 and 39 (range of 37)
- Very few candidates responded to this question.
- It seems as if learners are not familiar with the topics of Business Strategies and Legislation.
- Candidates are not well conversant with the acts.
- Candidates did not answer all the sub-questions in a question and left a lot of sub-questions unanswered.
- Candidates lack a general understanding of the different topics e.g., the different types of strategies.
- Learners does not respond in full sentences when asked to discuss/explain and respond with vague phrases or one-word answers. They forfeited marks if they do not answer in full sentences.

(b) Why the question was poorly answered? Also provide specific examples, indicate common errors committed by learners in this question, and any misconceptions.

- Question 2.2 Candidates could not answer the Benefits of Diversification strategies and responded with vague sentences or responded with the different diversification strategies or explained diversification strategies.
- Question 2.3.1 – 2.3.3 Candidates could not identify the PESTLE elements and responded with answers e.g., inflation, legislation
- Question 2.4 They confused the steps in strategy evaluation (as stated in the examination guidelines) with the strategic management process.
- Question 2.5.1 Candidates still struggle to quote from scenarios.
- Question 2.5.2 Candidates struggled to give advantages and disadvantages of the NCA. They also confused the NCA with the CPA and refer to the rights of consumers in terms of the CPA
- Question 2.6 Instead of discussing overtime as a provision of the BCEA most candidates only responded with a definition of overtime or general explanation of overtime.
- Question 2.7 Candidates could not apply Porter's Five Forces. Their responses included definition/explanation of buyers and examples of threats.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- Teachers must explain to learners how to respond to scenario questions. There will be incorrect sentences as well as informative sentences. Learners must read carefully and apply their knowledge before quoting from a scenario. In Question 2.5 the first sentence was informative: "Excel Bank offers various financial products to prospective clients." The next sentences: "The bank conducts an affordability assessment before credit is granted" relates to compliance to the Act. The last two sentences were the right quotes and speak to the consumer rights according to the NCA.
- Learners must be taught how to analyse scenarios to quote the correct statements.
- It is to the advantage of learners to quote the full sentence when asked to quote.

www.mycourses.co.za

QUESTION 3

(a) General comment on the performance of learners in the specific question. Was the question well answered or poorly answered?

- Question 3 was a popular question and most candidates obtained good marks.
- Based on 100 scripts the average for question 3 is 50%. The median mark is 52.5% and the marks range between 1 and 34 (range of 33)

- Question 3.5 Candidates confused the quality indicators of the Financial function with the indicators of the Administration function.
- Question 3.6 Candidates confused the ways in TQM can reduce the cost of quality with the responses for Question 3.7 the impact of TQM if poorly implemented.
- Question 3.7 Candidates misinterpreted the question. ... impact if POORLY implemented by businesses". Candidates are supposed to respond with negative responses, but some responded by giving positive responses. Some confused it with the roles of quality circles.
- Question 3.8 Candidates struggled to obtain marks for the advantages of adequate financing and capacity in a large business. 91 of the 100 sample scripts answered this question but only 45% of candidates could obtain a mark for this question. Candidates did not understand the question and respond with general statements like "have enough money to pay employees". They could not link it to quality in large businesses. To add to the difficulty and confusion Question 3.5 was about the indicators of the financial function.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- When answering a list/name question caution learners to be careful of repetition e.g., Examples of fringe benefits: Allowances is seen as one example thus Car/Travel/Housing/Cell phone/Clothing is only awarded one mark and the rest is marked as repetition. Candidates have to respond with different types of fringe benefits.
- Encourage learners to focus on the question and to understand what is expected from them. Let them highlight important words in a question e.g. The role of the interviewer before the interview. They have to answer the question and must not make their own assumptions.
- Quality is a very difficult and unpopular topic. Subject Advisors can assist teachers by giving them training to simplify the topic.
- When answering question of quality indicators in the business functions candidates must focus on “How” the function must do their job to ensure quality.
- When asked a follow-on question e.g., question 3.6.2 Explain other ways in which TQM can reduce the cost of quality, candidates must not respond with sentences from the scenario. They will forfeit marks by repeating sentences from the scenario.
- Teachers must put emphasis on the quality concepts and ensure the learners understand the concepts e.g. Quality management, TQM etc.

QUESTION 4

(a) General comment on the performance of learners in the specific question.

Was the question well answered or poorly answered?

- Most of the learners answered Question 4 and obtained good marks.
- Based on 100 scripts the average for question 4 is 49%. The median mark is 47.5% and the marks range between 3 and 40 (range of 37)

(b) Why the question was poorly answered? Also provide specific examples, indicate common errors committed by learners in this question, and any misconceptions.

- Question 4.6.2 Candidates discussed the purpose/content of induction instead of the benefits.
- Question 4.7 Candidates could not apply the steps in the PDCA cycle.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- When answering a follow-on question candidates must take note that the follow-on question might not be on the same content. For example, Question 4.6.1 Candidates were supposed to quote two purposes of induction from the scenario, but the follow-on question asked for the benefits of induction. This way of asking questions must be applied in controlled tests and examinations during the year.
- Use recent old examination papers to set class activities and teach learners how to respond to the different questions.
- Teachers must give more informal assessments that includes scenarios for learners to apply knowledge gained.
- Start in Grade 10 and teach the candidates how to respond to the different action verbs. If the foundation is set in Grade 10 then it will be easier when they are in Grade 12 to respond appropriately.
- Previous Question papers and Marking Guidelines must be used by teachers when preparing learners for the final examinations, e.g., classwork and homework should be taken from previous questions papers to familiarize learners on how questions are set.

(d) Describe any other specific observations relating to responses of learners and comments that are useful to teachers, subject advisors, teacher development etc.

- Make teachers and learners aware that lower cognitive questions are assessed in Section B and that under-performing learners should study concepts and headings as well to obtain marks, e.g., Types of defensive strategies, Examples of fringe benefits.
- Candidates struggled to express themselves – more practice in writing of responses is needed.
- Candidates do not understand the meaning of Business concepts and only give vague answers, when answering discuss/explain questions. They forfeited marks by responding with vague, general statements.
- Candidates do not follow instructions e.g., Start each new answer on a new page, Number answers correctly according to the numbering system used in this question paper. Teachers must teach candidate how to answer a Business Studies paper.
- Learners who are performing very good for assessments during the year must be encouraged to study at least four facts under each heading, while poor performing learners must be encouraged to study three facts.
- Teachers must check that the textbooks they are using is in line with the examination guidelines and latest marking guidelines. Information must be updated after November examinations to ensure learners have the right content to study.
- Use examination papers from other provinces to prepare learners for final exam.
- Educators must take note of the Notes to markers in the marking guideline and apply the same principles during the year when marking tests and exams.

SECTION C

- This was not a popular question and learners did not perform well.
- Based on 100 scripts the average for question 5 is 7%. The median mark is 22.5% and the marks range between 5 and 38 (range of 33)

(b) Why the question was poorly answered? Also provide specific examples, indicate common errors committed by learners in this question, and any misconceptions.

- Bullet 2: Candidates confused the LRA with the BCEA and elaborated on the provisions of the BCEA.
- Bullet 3: Some candidates responded with the impact on employees instead of the impact on businesses.
- Bullet 4: The penalty for non-compliance is confused with the discriminatory actions according to the LRA.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- Emphasize that the LRA is about the relationship between employers and employees and how to handle disputes.
- Help candidates to identify current examples and trends that they can use as Originality.
- Discuss current newspaper articles and link it to the theory e.g., recent strike actions in South Africa.
- Let learners practice how to write introductions and conclusions.
- Emphasize the importance of focusing on the impact on businesses and not employees or consumers. Impact means what will be the advantage or disadvantage for the business.
- Markers must share the relevant information with other teachers in their districts.
- Content gap workshops should be arranged by subject advisors to assist new and inexperienced teachers.
- Conduct workshops on marking principles specifically related to Business Studies.

(d) Describe any other specific observations relating to responses of learners and comments that are useful to teachers, subject advisors, teacher development etc.

- Teaching and revision must be based on the latest Examination guidelines.
- Google the latest amendments in terms of legislation.

- Bullet 3 sub-bullet 1: Candidates confused the impact of TQM element of continuous skills development with the impact of the Skills Development Act on businesses.
- Bullet 4 Candidates confused the role of quality circles with the way to reduce the cost of quality. Some candidates only responded to the last part of the question and explained the impact of continuous improvement to processes and systems.

(c) Provide suggestions for improvement in relation to Teaching and Learning

- An essay is regarded as a middle to high order question. Therefore, all the responses must be in full sentences. Candidates forfeited marks because of incomplete, vague sentences.
- Candidates must read questions carefully and ensure they know what is expected.
- For the Essay questions teachers must emphasize that learners only write facts that are relevant to the bullets (questions) asked.
- For the Introduction and Conclusion of Essays, teachers must emphasize that facts for the Introduction and Conclusion must link to the bullets in the Essay question.
- Teachers must make use of part-marking during the year. Candidates must know how marks will be awarded.

(d) Describe any other specific observations relating to responses of learners and comments that are useful to teachers, subject advisors, teacher development etc.

- In questions where split marking is used candidates tend to combine two different facts in one, e.g. first part of the first fact combined with another fact.
- In Question 3.7 candidates responded with the statement: Decrease in productivity due to decline in profits instead of:
 - i) Decline in productivity due to work stoppages.
 - ii) The investors might withdraw as a result of decline in profits. They are forfeiting marks because the context of the sentence will be marked.
- For the Introduction and Conclusion of Essays, teachers must emphasize that facts for the Introduction and Conclusion must link to the bullets in the essay and not to the topic in general.
- Questions on the Legislation and Quality of Performance are still poorly answered in general. Teachers must also emphasize these topics and revise questions in preparation of the final examination.

This marking guideline consist of 28 pages.

NOTES TO MARKERS

PREAMBLE

The notes to markers are provided for quality assurance purposes to ensure the following:

- (a) Fairness, consistency and reliability in the standard of marking
- (b) Facilitate the moderation of candidates' scripts at the different levels
- (c) Streamline the marking process considering the broad spectrum of markers across the country
- (d) Implement appropriate measures in the teaching, learning and assessment of the subject at schools/institutions of learning

1. For marking and moderation purposes, the following colours are recommended:

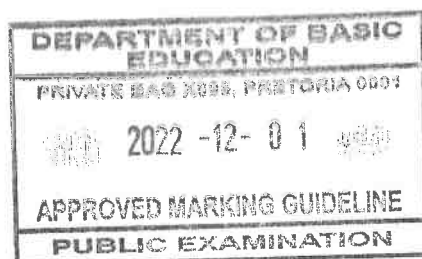

Marker:	Red
Senior Marker:	Green
Deputy Chief Marker:	Black/Blue
Chief Marker:	Pink
Internal Moderator:	Orange
DBE Moderator:	Turquoise

2. Candidates' responses must be in full sentences for SECTIONS B and C. However, this would depend on the nature of the question.
3. A comprehensive marking guideline has been provided but this is by no means exhaustive. Due consideration should be given to an answer that is correct but:
 - Uses a different expression from that which appears in the marking guideline
 - Comes from another credible source
 - Original
 - A different approach is used

NOTE: There is only ONE correct answer in SECTION A.

4. Take note of other relevant answers provided by candidates and allocate marks accordingly. (In cases where the answer is unclear or indicates some understanding, part-marks should be awarded, for example, one mark instead of the maximum of two marks.)
5. The word 'Sub-max' is used to facilitate the allocation of marks within a question or sub-question.
6. The purpose of circling marks (guided by 'max' in the breakdown of marks) on the right-hand side is to ensure consistency and accuracy in the marking of scripts as well as for calculation and moderation purposes.
7. Subtotals to questions must be written in the right-hand margin. Circle the subtotals as indicated by the allocation of marks. This must be guided by 'max' in the marking guidelines. Only the total for each question should appear in the left-hand margin next to the appropriate question number.
8. In an indirect question, the theory as well as the response must be relevant and related to the question.

9. Correct numbering of answers to questions or sub questions is recommended in SECTIONS A and B. However, if the numbering is incorrect, follow the sequence of the candidate's responses. Candidates will be penalised if the latter is not clear.
10. No additional credit must be given for repetition of facts. Indicate with an 'R'.
11. The differentiation between 'evaluate' and 'critically evaluate' can be explained as follows:
- 11.1 When 'evaluate' is used, candidates are expected to respond in either a positive/negative manner or take a neutral (positive and negative) stance, e.g., Positive: 'COIDA eliminates time and costs spent on lengthy civil court proceedings.'√
- 11.2 When 'critically evaluate' is used, candidates are expected to respond in either a positive/negative manner or take a neutral (positive and negative) stance. In this instance candidates are also expected to support their responses with more depth, e.g., 'COIDA eliminates time and costs spent on lengthy civil court proceedings'√, because the employer will not be liable for compensation to the employee for injuries sustained during working hours as long as it can be proved that the business was not negligent.'√
- NOTE: 1. The above could apply to 'analyse' as well.
2. Note the placing of the tick (√) in the allocation of marks.
12. The allocation of marks must be informed by the nature of the question, cognitive verb used, mark allocation in the marking guideline and the context of each question.
- Cognitive verbs, such as:
- 12.1 Advise, name, state, outline, motivate, recommend, suggest, (list not exhaustive) do not usually require much depth in candidates' responses. Therefore, the mark allocation for each statement/answer appears at the end.
- 12.2 Define, describe, explain, discuss, elaborate, distinguish, differentiate, compare, tabulate, analyse, evaluate, critically evaluate (list not exhaustive) require a greater depth of understanding, application and reasoning. Therefore, the marks must be allocated more objectively to ensure that assessing is conducted according to established norms so that uniformity, consistency and fairness are achieved.
13. Mark only the FIRST answer where candidates offer more than one answer for SECTION B and C questions that require one answer.

14. SECTION B

14.1 If for example, FIVE facts are required, mark the candidate's FIRST FIVE responses and ignore the rest of the responses. Indicate by drawing a line across the unmarked portion.

NOTE: 1. This applies only to questions where the number of facts is specified.
2. The above also applies to responses in SECTION C (where applicable)

14.2 If two facts are written in one sentence, award the candidate FULL credit. Point 14.1 above still applies.

14.3 If candidates are required to provide their own examples/views, brainstorm this at the marking centre to finalise alternative answers and consult with the Internal Moderator at the DBE for approval.

14.4 Use of the cognitive verbs and allocation of marks:

14.4.1 If the number of facts are specified, questions that require candidates to 'describe/discuss/explain' may be marked as follows:

- Fact 2 marks (or as indicated in the marking guidelines)
- Explanation 1 mark (two marks will be allocated in Section C)

The 'fact' and 'explanation' are given separately in the marking guideline to facilitate mark allocation.

14.4.2 If the number of facts required is not specified, the allocation of marks must be informed by the nature of the question and the maximum mark allocated in the marking guideline.

14.5 ONE mark may be awarded for answers that are easy to recall, requires one-word answers or is quoted directly from a scenario/case study. This applies to SECTIONS B and C in particular (where applicable).

15. SECTION C

15.1 The breakdown of the mark allocation for the essays is as follows:

Option 1: Only relevant facts: 2 marks (No '-S') Where a candidate answers 50% or more (two to four sub-questions) of the question with only relevant facts; no '-S' appears in the left margin. Award the maximum of TWO (2) marks for synthesis. Option 2: Some relevant facts: 1 mark (One '-S') Where a candidate answers less than 50% (only one sub-question) of the question with only OR some relevant facts; one '-S' appears in the left margin. 15.3 Indicate insight in the left-hand margin with a symbol e.g. ('L, A, -S and/or O').

- 15.4 The breakdown of marks is indicated at the end of the suggested answer/ marking guideline to each question.
- 15.5 Mark all relevant facts until the SUB MAX/MAX mark in a subsection has been attained. Write SUB MAX/MAX after maximum marks have been obtained but continue reading for originality 'O'.
- 15.6 At the end of each essay indicate the allocation of marks for facts and marks for insight as follows: (L – Layout, A – Analysis, S – Synthesis, O – Originality) as in the table below.

CONTENT	MARKS
Facts	32 (max.)
L	2
A	2
S	2
O	2
TOTAL	40

- 15.7 When awarding marks for facts, take note of the sub-maxima indicated, especially if candidates do not make use of the same subheadings. Remember, headings and subheadings are encouraged and contribute to insight (structuring/logical flow/sequencing) and indicate clarity of thought. (See MARKS BREAKDOWN at the end of each question.)
- 15.8 If the candidate identifies/interprets the question INCORRECTLY, then he/she may still obtain marks for layout.
- 15.9 If a different approach is used by candidates, ensure that the answers are assessed according to the mark allocation/subheadings as indicated in the marking guideline.
- 15.10 15.10.1 Award TWO marks for complete sentences. Award ONE mark for phrases, incomplete sentences and vague answers.
- 15.10.2 With effect from November 2015, the TWO marks will not necessarily appear at the end of each completed sentence. The ticks (√) will be separated and indicated next to each fact, e.g., 'Product development is a growth strategy √, where businesses aim to introduce new products into existing markets.'√
- This will be informed by the nature and context of the question, as well as the cognitive verb used.
- 15.11 With effect from November 2017, the maximum of TWO (2) marks for facts shown as headings in the marking guidelines, will not necessarily apply to each question. This would also depend on the nature of the question.
