ENGLISH HOME LANGUAGE P3 MARKING GUIDELINE (EXEMPLAR)

MARKS: 100

TIME: 2½ hours

This marking guideline consists of 10 pages.

INFORMATION FOR THE MARKER

In assessing a candidate's work, the following aspects, among others, drawn from the assessment rubric, must be borne in mind:

- The overall effect of planning, drafting, proofreading and editing of the work on the final text produced.
- Awareness of writing for a specific purpose, audience and context as well as register, style and tone – especially in SECTION B.
- Grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- Language structures, including an awareness of critical language.
- Choice of words and idiomatic language.
- Sentence construction.
- Paragraphing.
- Interpretation of the topic that will be reflected in the overall content: the introduction, development of ideas and the conclusion.

- Allowance must be made for a candidate's own interpretation of the topic, even if it differs from the given points or a marker's own views or interpretations.

SECTION A: ESSAY

QUESTION 1

Candidates are required to write ONE essay of 350–400 words (approximately 2 pages) on ONE of the given topics. Candidates may write in any genre: narrative, descriptive, reflective, discursive, argumentative, or any combination of these.

1.1 Success is on the other side of your comfort zone.

- Reflective/descriptive or narrative.
- Could convey a specific area where one could be successful or a more global approach.
- Stepping outside what is comfortable and safe to achieve something worthwhile is the crux of this topic.

[50]

1.2 Children's games, toys and fairy-tales perpetuate demeaning stereotypes.

- Argumentative or discursive but allow for relevant responses that are narrative or reflective too.
- Candidate could agree or disagree with the statement.
- Response should demonstrate understanding of stereotype(s) and should make use of an/example(s) from either games, toys or fairy-tales to illustrate this understanding.
- Responses can focus on one stereotype such as gender, ethnicity, racial generalisations that promote this line of thinking and behaviour in children.
- Can focus on impact this has in indoctrination in adulthood.

[50]

1.3 Google is making us dumber, not smarter.

- Argumentative/discursive but also consider a strong narrative/reflective response.
- The interaction and connectivity to the Internet to have instant answers (gratification) does not lead to us learning more or having better understanding of the world.
- Our reliance on the Internet and search engines such as Google can make us less knowledgeable and in fact lazy and dependent.

[50]

1.4 Body-shamers / Body-shaming.

- Narrative/descriptive/reflective/argumentative/discursive.
- Candidate could choose topic from either perspective; victim or perpetrator.
- Should focus on the concept of having a poor body-image and the negative impact and feelings of shame about our bodies. Or could look at being judgemental of others' bodies.
- Could focus on the effects and impact this has on a persons' self-esteem.

[50]

1.5 There are true sides to every story.

[Business Day, March 2021]

- Discursive/narrative/reflective/descriptive/argumentative
- Candidate could focus on the idea that there are two sides to every story: objectivity, and that each side has its truths and merits.
- Could focus on social media and fake news not knowing what to believe. [50]

1.6 1.6.1 Dog and Duck companions

- Narrative/reflective/descriptive/argumentative/discursive
- Focus could look at:
 - Unlikely friendships
 - o Enemies or rivals who become friends through shared experiences
 - Understanding and showing empathy for others who are different from ourselves

[50]

1.6.2 Voiceless

- Narrative/reflective/descriptive/argumentative/discursive
- Being silenced/not having a voice.
- Censorship.
- Could allude to gender stereotypes or silencing feminist views.

[50]

1.6.3 Prosthetics photo

- Narrative/reflective/descriptive/argumentative/discursive
- Candidate could focus on rising above one's challenges (could be difficulties or disabilities of any kind – not necessarily amputation – mark globally here).
